

AFTER PARIS: Implications and Opportunities Forum

Friday 6 May 2016

Agenda

AFTER PARIS: implications and opportunities – a forum for Sustainability Advantage members

Time	Description
8.45 am	Guest arrival & registration
9.00 am	Welcome Alice Cahill, Senior Team Leader, Sustainability Advantage, OEH
9:05 am	Creating a climate for change Tom Grosskopf, Director, Metro Branch, Regional Operations, Office of Environment and Heritage [TBC]
9.15 am	Sustainability redefined: From do less harm to restorative by design Leaders in the global business community are taking the results from Paris into the heart of their operations. Bob Willard reviews what a sustainable business will look like in 2030 and how to get there... Bob Willard is an author and pioneering expert on quantifying and selling the business value of corporate sustainability strategies, and co-creator of the Future Fit Business Benchmark (live cross from Canada).
9.35 am	How the Sustainable Development Goals can improve the way you do business Sam Mostyn, President of the Australian Council for International Development (ACFID) and widely sought after sustainability adviser. Board member Virgin Australia, Transurban Group, Mirvac, Citibank Australia and CoverMore.
10.10 am	Paving the road from global goals to local action Adam Balarin, Supply Chain Director ANZ, Unilever
10.40 am	Break
11.00 am	Panel: The challenge of ZERO Leading companies are innovating to zero. Hear them share their strategies...
11.50 am	Platinum Project Reveal De Bortoli Wines
12.10 pm	Shifting goalposts and changing gears Facilitated workshop with Jason Clarke from Minds at Work, teasing out shared problems and common interests that will drive transition to a low carbon economy. What are the short, medium and long term challenges and what support do you need to navigate around/through them...
1.30 pm	Networking lunch

Sustainability Advantage workshops for members

Time	Description
2.15 to 3.15 pm (concurrent sessions)	Option 1 100% renewable energy – key steps for success An overview of essential steps and options for achieving 100% renewable energy for your organisation by Barbara Albert, co-founder of 100% Renewables
	Option 2 Cluster POPUPs – an opportunity to get together with others in your sector. Further details TBA
3.15 to 3.30 pm	Break
3.30 to 4.30 pm (concurrent sessions)	Option 1 Can getting organics out of your waste stream save you money? Angus Johnson, KMH
	Option 2 Carbon leadership: an introduction to the new Carbon Management Module
	Option 3 Cluster pop-ups – an opportunity to get together with others in your sector. Further details TBA
4.30 to 5.00 pm	Networking